

Include, Contain, Consist, Involve의 차이

1. Include means a group has some parts inside it.

E.g. 'famous football players include Pele, Ronaldo, and Ronaldinho'.

2. Contain means something has something else inside.

E.g. 'this bottle contains water'.

3. Consist means have something or some things as important parts.

E.g. 'a plane consists of wings and a cabin'.

4. Involve means something must be done in order for something to happen.

E.g. 'growing a garden involves a lot of care'. Or it can mean inviting or luring someone to take part in something.

E.g. 'they involved me in the project'.
